Who We Are

SoHo Dragon is a Wall Street-based consulting and staffing firm that focuses on complex technology deployments when time is short, budget is tight, and cost of failure is high.

We are agile, independent, and hold a straightforward philosophy – outstanding talent produces outstanding work.

Core Values

Integrity	doing what we say we're going to do
Leadership	making the people around us better
Commitment	helping and taking care of customers, partners, and team members
Realistic	with your timelines and expectations, our approach, and the delivered technology

More About Us

In addition to 'A' Team talent sourcing, SoHo Dragon is a full-service IT consulting firm. Our services include Microsoft software integration, application development, GRC, financial solutions, cloud migration, and quality assurance.

Work With Us

We know senior executives are busy and sometimes struggle to fill their hiring requirements. With experience and a focus on recruitment teamwork, SoHo Dragon can find your project resources – quickly. (Yes, even the hairy "it must be delivered tomorrow" projects.)
